New Puzzles, Chills, and Halloween Images! I love my job here on Twinklestar's blog...The job is not all fun and games and plastic spiders though...Nope, my job is mostly very emotional and nerve wracking...and I am now hauling globs of plastic spiders onto my chest...to make stuffing a carnival ghost! This clipart image is printed here, on a HP P3 color Laserjet (a lot of people use their inkjet printers) on a glossy photo paper and then enlarged and re-mounted...the actual size of this monstrous photo is about 1 1/2 feet tall and is really pushing my printer! A friend, kindly drove out early one morning (he is ALWAYS very *helpful*) and then he sent me another printout...this one was from a santa wrapart poster and I shrunk it and used the same art, thus, see the jump scare mansion for white polka dots...but for the life of me, I can't find the print of the santa wrapart to enlarge! real Santa wrapart, nor can I imagine that the image would have clear print on a Santa wrapart. If you know where I can find this printout, then please let me know... This may look like a pretty easy maze to you, but I can't tell about my level of frustration as I have only completed that maze once in my life...that added to it is the fact that I usually do not like to use my real name in my blogs...but...I think I will compromise here. The maze is named the "mughouse" and it was a maze in the B&R mall where I worked once, and then, my father was the manager and we had to build the maze...so, your guess is as good as mine as to what happened. My favorite maze was the one that was built in the Denver Zoo, but I have found some real cool ones in Halloween haunts and now, they have all vanished from the public's hands and with them, I have found the way out. In other news, I have been working on some new characters for my "Spooky's Jump Scare Mansion" series....how come? I am not quite sure why, but I found some flickr images (my very favorite) that I just HAD to use! These two images represent my favorite character designs for the eventual movie adaptations of my Sp

Apex Legends is a Battle Royale game set in an online, free-to-play universe where every player is a Hunter or a Specimen. In an over-the-top dinosaur vs dinosaur fight to the death, the last one standing is the winner. The game is based on the Unreal Engine and has all the bells and whistles you would expect from a game of this genre, including dynamic reloads, weapons clipping through walls, spawning from a big vehicle (i.e., a Call of Duty-style helicopter), and player customization items to outfit players with special mobility, weapon and defense boosts, and much more. In Apex Legends, everyone starts the game on equal footing and it is left up to the players to help them find a team. Players must find and build a group of like-minded Survivors, rise to the top of the Survivors' leaderboards, and earn their place in the Honor's gallery of legends. Epic Games rewards its players by providing exclusive

Sharks vs. Society - who will win? - openfuture Most people are sharks. Some people are not. ===== michaelbwang Sharks are the top predator in their eco system. The humans are too quickly shifting our eco system to create a permanent upswell in shark numbers. The world's oceans are already being destroyed by human activities like oil drilling and irresponsible fishing practices. It's for the good of both the succeeding generations to learn to regulate the cyclic nature of humanity. ----- mattgreenrocks That's a hard prediction to make.
